North Broward Hospital District Board of Commissioners
1700 Northwest 49th Street, Suite #150, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33309

- October 2021 Board approved engaging Diversified Search Group to expand the applicant pool.

The Audit Subcommittee conducted Chief Internal Auditor candidate interviews on March 21, 2022 and selected Ms. Deborah Hall as the leading candidate as she had a vast background in Audit and Compliance roles. Mr. Edwin Taliaferro also interviewed on March 21, 2022 and was highly regarded for his Audit and Compliance experience. Mr. Sprada noted that considering Mr. Brian Kozik, Interim Chief Internal Auditor's impending retirement, the Chief Compliance Officer position had been posted presenting the Board with flexibility, to include:

- A. In accordance with the Audit subcommittee recommendation, select Ms. Hall for the role of Chief Internal Auditor and consider interim oversight of Compliance until Board and Ms. Hall finalize a permanent role;
- B. Conduct Board panel interview with candidates; or
- C. Conduct individual candidate interviews and schedule future meeting for selection.

Chair Angier opened the floor to the Commissioners to share their preference on how to proceed with interviewed / vetted candidates based on the options provided by Mr. Sprada. Discussion ensued and consensus was decided that both candidates introduce themselves to the Board at this meeting and a vote would be considered following candidate introductions.

Ms. Hall attended in person and shared background to her education, professional experiences, accreditations, and expertise.

The Commissioners proceeded to ask Ms. Hall interview questions.

*Commissioner Hage departed meeting at 6:19 p.m.

Mr. Taliaferro joined via TEAMS. He gave background to his education, professional experiences, accreditations, and expertise.

*Note: Technical difficulties resulted in inaudible recording for a portion of this item.

The Commissioners proceeded to ask Mr. Taliaferro interview questions.

Following candidate introductions, Commissioners discussed several scenarios in which the two candidates be given a role, either as Chief Internal Auditor or Chief Compliance Officer.

Point of Order was made by Mr. Sprada clarifying that Mr. Taliaferro was asked and provided his preference, however Ms. Hall did not receive the opportunity.

Chair Angier invited Ms. Hall to the podium to provide her preferred role. Ms. Hall advised that her preferred role was Chief Compliance Officer, however, stated that she would be honored to serve as Chief Internal Auditor with interim Compliance coverage. Mr. Taliaferro was asked of his preferred role, in which he advised the Board that his preferred the role of Chief Internal Audit.
